

ROYAL RS1

Royal's RS1 chair is uniquely designed to support the oral surgery specialty. The electro-mechanical drive provides automated height and recline control, and reclines to a modified Trendelenburg position. A 6-way paddle foot control includes automatic position and automatic return. The RS1 features an 8-way pivoting IV armrest, seat and backrest rails, and magnetic surgical headrest.

Royal®

RS1 SPECIALTY CHAIR

SURGERY

STANDARD FEATURES

- Motorized drive
- Oral surgery magnetic cradle headrest
- Solid state electronics
- No rotation (60° base rotation optional)
- 6-way foot control
- Automatic return (AR)
- Automatic position (AP)
- Modified Trendelenburg positioning
- Adjustable/Pivoting IV armrest
- Swing-up/down armrests
- Arm support slings
- Adjustable accessory rails on both sides of back
- Accessory rails on both sides of seat
- Easy-care, replaceable upholstery
- All metal frame

IV ARMREST

8-way adjustable with arm straps

ACCESSORY RAILS

2 on backrest, plus left & right sides

MODIFIED TRENDENBURG POSITIONING

Elevated legs when procedures or positioning requires